The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

More Patrolmen; Less Accidents

The California Highway Patrol is becoming much more visible in the Lemon Grove area as its Accident Reduction Team attends its duties.

The Team is recognizable by a sign "ART" attached to the front of the three patrol cars the Team operates over Lemon Grove streets.

Many local residents will have contact with ART during the coming weeks and it should be noted that most of its activity is not punitive.

There is a major thrust that will seem punitive although it really isn't. It's the citing of bike-riding youngsters who endanger their own life and limb. On Golden Ave. Friday was a perfect example. There, an ART officer was writing a citation to a lad who appeared to be about ten. His distressed mother was standing alongside. The boy's head was hung. The citation was an official one; the kind a dangerous auto driver would get. But there the resemblance ends.

The youngster will have to go to an El Cajon Court on a future Saturday. One of his parents will have to attend the hearing. The judge will be a specially chosen high school student. There, both the cyclist and his parents will learn something about bicycle safety. In most instances the parent will realize for the first time that junior has dangerous cycling habits. 10.5% of all injury accidents involve bicyclists.

It is reasonable to assume that parents will help junior correct his bad traffic habits and avert another "day in court."

Because youngsters on bicycles make up the greatest number of traffic injuries, this element will get the most attention from ART officers although there is another major concern—that of reducing auto accidents.

And well they should! Do you know where the two top accident incident locations in San Diego County are? In Lemon Grove!

One is at Broadway-Imperial — a hazardous intersection that will be improved when a new traffic control system is installed there, along with center dividers that are to be installed the length of Broadway. Both improvements are more than a year behind original schedule. Meanwhile ART will ride herd on those who enter the intersection after the amber has turned red, or commit other hazardous acts.

The other top accident rate spot is also on Broadway—the strip from Federal to Massachusetts. North and Broadway, and Broadway between Grove and Imperial, rank closely behind.

Here is a complete scorecard of accidents in and around this "worst" areas. Listed by total accidents, accidents involving only property damage are:

| Location | Total | Injury | Property Damage |
|---|---|---|---|
| Broadway-Imperial | 14 | 3 | 11 |
| North-Broadway | 11 | 3 | 8 |
| Grove-Imperial | 10 | 4 | 6 |
| Broadway-Kempf | 9 | 3 | 6 |
| Canton-Imperial | 9 | 2 | 7 |
| Canton-Skyline | 7 | 3 | 4 |
| Broadway-Sweetwater | 7 | 3 | 4 |
| Broadway-Main | 7 | 0 | 5 |
| Mass.-Waite | 6 | 3 | 3 |
| Cypress-San Miguel | 6 | 3 | 3 |
| Broadway-Mass. | 6 | 3 | 3 |
| Broadway-Grove | 5 | 1 | 5 |
| Lois-University | 5 | 3 | 2 |
| Broadway-Fairway | 5 | 3 | 2 |
| Elkelton-Jamacha Rd. | 5 | 2 | 3 |
| Parkbrook-Worthington | 5 | 2 | 3 |
| Broadway-Buena-Vista | 5 | 2 | 3 |
| Other than intersections. Segments: | | | |
| Broadway, Federal to Mass. | 18 | 2 | 16 |
| Broadway, Grove to Imperial | 10 | 2 | 8 |
| Mass., San Altos to El Prado | 9 | 1 | 8 |
| Broadway, Fairway to 94 | 7 | 0 | 7 |
| Mass., Waite to Carmenita | 5 | 4 | 1 |
| Broadway, Fairway to Quarry | 5 | 3 | 2 |
| London ln., Mass. to Flourine | 5 | 2 | 3 |

In a year's time there have been 182 accidents in the above areas, and 57 injuries. This doesn't account for accidents elsewhere on Lemon Grove streets.

There can be no argument that the situation needs correction and there'll be a scoreboard published regularly in these columns showing warnings and citations issued.

ART officers will also negotiate "daylighting" corners in the residential areas. And they'll answer questions.

Their patrol car will be their office. Citizens are invited to step up (from the non-traffic side) and put their questions to them. They'll also make speeches to groups and clubs.

The ART project will be in addition to the normal corps of CHP officers operating in the community. Officers assigned here in the four-vehicle ART project are Bill Pasley, Lloyd Needham, Carl Bailey and Bob Barrett. Pasley is the officer in charge. He initiated the ART project in Lakeside where the accident rate dropped dramatially as the men sought out problems and suggested solution.

Until the violation rate is reduced it may appear that Lemon Grove has been "invaded" by police. By the time the project has been completed here—approximately four months—Lemon Grove streets will have become progressively safer.

KIDS DAY — A special preview for some of Lemon Grove's youngsters was held last week when the Lemon Grove Fire Department entertained them in preparation for Saturday's Kids Day Parade, sponsored by the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club. Other Kids Day activities include free movies and ice cream for the youngsters, with trophies awarded for top entries in the parade, which will move out at noon along Imperial ave. north to Broadway, then east on Broadway to Kempf st.

Parade Planned For Sat. Along Imperial, Broadway

The 18th annual Lemon Grove Kiwanis "Kids Day" pageant will be kicked off Saturday at 10 a.m. with movies, a parade, prizes and free ice cream.

A film, "Greta, the Misfit Greyhound" will be shown to youngsters through 12 years of age at 10 a.m. in the Lemon Grove Junior High School auditorium.

Parade groups will assemble on the corner of Lincoln and Citronella streets at 11 a.m. Judging will occur from 11:30 to noon.

Basis of the judging will consist of the following: originality, 30 pts.; originality, child's effort, 10 pts.; effectiveness 20 pts.; effectiveness, child's efforts, 10 pts.; neatness, 10 pts.; deportment, 20 pts.

Contestants will compete in eight categories: single costume entries under 8 years; single costumed entries, 8-12 years; costumed group (2-3 in a group) under 8 years; costumed group (2-3 in a group) 8-12 years; costumed group (four or more) to 12 years; wheeled vehicle other than bicycles, to 12 years; bicycles, 8-12 years.

Mike Maxon and Jim Melvin, parade chairmen, plan to move the parade out at noon sharp. A fire truck from the Lemon Grove Fire District will head the parade.

Other groups participating will be the Mount Miguel and Helix High School bands, the Lemon Grove Junior High School band, the Rollerettes from Skyline Rollerena who will demonstrate their roller skating skills, Miss Lemon Grove, and Miss Spring Valley.

The parade will move north on Imperial avenue to Broadway, east to Kemp street, and south to the east gate of the Lemon Grove Junior High School at School lane and Lincoln st.

Immediately after the parade, trophies for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners will be awarded.

According to Elmer Ringeisen, Kids' Day Chairman and owner of the Skyline Rollarena, midget motor vehicles and horses will not be allowed in the parade.

After the parade and awarding of trophies, there will be free ice cream for all kids.

The Spring Valley Kiwanis Club will again sponsor Kids' Day Saturday at La Presa Junior High School.

On tap for youngsters in attendance are free old time silent movies, a puppet show by Marie Hitchcock, Spring Valley's "Puppet Lady", as well as games, prizes, free ice cream, and plenty of hotdogs and balloons.

The day's festivities will get underway at 11 a.m. and will run for four hours.

High School Lunch Prices Increased

School lunch prices have been increased in the Grossmont High School District, based on an approval by the Governing Board in June. Class A lunches have raised from 45 cents to 55 cents each and ala carte items have increased from 5 cents to 10 cents per item.

The basis for the price increase was established as a mutual effort over the past year between students, and administrative staff after piloting a sample lunch program at Grossmont High School and Helix High School during the school year 1971-72.

Operational losses in the Food Service Program have existed in this district over the past three years. Food costs have increased as much as fourteen per cent in some areas during the past year and it was imperative that the lunch program bear part of the burden of responsibility in increased labor costs and food costs.

The pilot program at Helix and Grossmont High Schools initiated last year directed its efforts at determining the student market in terms of taste and specific desires of students as well as a look to modeling a food service program based on the commercial operations that appeal to the students and staff, while still maintaining the basic philosophy and goals of the traditional school lunch program.

The students indicated a preference for a greater number of ala carte items, and better quality of food. As a result of these ideas and the field testing for one full year, recommendations were made to the new school lunch program price list.

L.G. Not In On Joint Powers Pact

Heartland Fire Training Project to Get Underway

Planning and designing will soon be underway on a six-acre proposed fire training and multi-use facility in El Cajon under a joint powers agreement between five of the six members of the Heartland Mutual Aid Fire Protection Zone.

The one member of the zone not participating in the venture is the Lemon Grove Fire Protection District.

The proposed facility, expected to be constructed on a six-acre City of El Cajon-owned site, would also include an El Cajon fire station, an expanded animal regulation center, and a communications center.

The five "partners" in the venture, the cities of El Cajon and La Mesa and the Santee, Lakeside, and Spring Valley fire protection districts, will not share the costs equally of the entire project. El Cajon will pay for the fire station, while costs for the animal center will be shared by La Mesa and El Cajon.

Estimated costs for the fire facilities are $200,000, which when split five ways based on fire training costs per man, would be a relatively small amount.

Contrary to other reports, Lemon Grove will probably not participate, according to Fire Chief Fred Dixon. Dixon indicated that the Lemon Grove Fire Board, although considering the project a good one, will more than likely not enter into the joint powers agreement with the other members.

The problem, according to Dixon, is that Lemon Grove has a light manpower situation, and would be limited as to the number of men who could use the facility.

"For example," Dixon said last Thursday, "We've got six men on duty this morning and there's no way we could send four of them to El Cajon to participate in a training program."

Dixon was quick to note that he is not against the program. "I think it has great merit and great possibilities," he said, and added that the program will eliminate a great deal of duplication of effort.

Through the Mutual Aid pact, and the joint powers agreement, five districts will benefit from a single facility, rather than trying to build five separate training centers.

Dixon also said that the local fire district didn't decline the opportunity to join the project because of tight financial conditions, as other reports also indicated.

The district is one of the most solid, financial-wise, in the county he said, indicating that the budget contained good reserves and that local taxpayers enjoyed one of the lowest tax rates in the area.

The problem is simply that the district's manpower makes participation in the venture prohibitive.

Dixon also indicated that those involved in the project have left it open for Lemon Grove to join later, but that it is unlikely, as not much growth or additional manpower is expected to be added.

El Cajon City Councilman Albert Van Zanten expressed concern over the project.

He said that he has received calls for residents in the area of the proposed facility expressing anxiety over controlled burning programs. Additionally, Van Zanten balked at the idea of El Cajon donating the land for the site, which is valued at $185,000.

Two Arrested In Hardware Burglary Case

Two burglary suspects were taken into custody last week at B and W Hardware and Trailer Supply, 455 Sweetwater rd., Spring Valley, after a silent alarm alerted deputies of an entry.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, a radio call sent deputies to the scene at 1:15 a.m. Friday morning after a silent burglar alarm was set off.

As deputies approached the building, footsteps were heard on the roof and two suspects were seen running about atop the structure. One of the suspects jumped into a drainage ditch and was apprehended, then the second suspect did the same.

Taken into custody were Roger W. Webb, 20, of 834 Pecos st., Spring Valley, and a 17-year-old companion. Webb was transported to County Jail and the juvenile was taken to juvenile hall.

Deputies, after placing the suspects in the partol vehicle, entered the building along with the owner of the business.

Inside, a hole in the roof was observed with a ladder leading to it. Also observed inside was an office door that had been forced and a desk which had been ransacked.

A search of the suspects netted a duck call and a ring of keys believed to fit a soda pop vending machine.

PUPPET PREVIEW — Marie Hitchcock, Spring Valley's "Puppet Lady", was on hand Monday at La Presa Elementary School to tell students about Saturday's Kids Day activities at La Presa Junior High. Along with Mrs. Hitchcock's puppets, a petting zoo provided by the El Cajon FFA and free movies, ice cream, and hot dogs will be provided. In photo are third grader Scott Corley, left, with one of the animals from the petting zoo, third grader Darlene Bohnstehn, who gives a "piggy-back ride" to puppet Murgatroyd, and Mrs. Hitchcock. Kids Day, sponsored by the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, begins at 11 a.m.

OTD '73 Parade Set For Sunday May 20

The 1973 edition of Old Times Days will be Sunday May 20, Ivan McDermott, OTD president said.

"The community seemed to prefer Sunday for this family type event so that parents and youngsters can enjoy it together," he said.

Jim Dorman, past president, who is active in mounting the annual parade said the date was being announced early this year to accommodate those who wanted to help put the parade on but found out about the opportunity after all the jobs were filled.

"We'll keep our most experienced volunteers," McDermott said, "but we're going to give out assignments to other fun-jobs on a first come-first served basis."

Appointment to discuss the assignment can be made through the Chamber office, Mrs. Myers 469-9621, or at the newspaper office, Miss St. John 469-0101.

SV Student Accepted For UCSB Admission

Daniel Allen Rappolee, of 3606 South Bonita st., Spring Valley, has been accepted for admission to the University of California at Santa Barbara, it was announced last week.

Several other applicants are also being considered for the more than 50 fields of study at the 800-acre seaside campus. Enrollment is still open to qualified applicants.

District Sets Free, Reduced Price Lunches

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School District will provide free and reduced-price meals to needy children whose families qualify under criteria established by the State of California.

Notices regarding the availability of free and reduced-price meals were sent to all parents, but in the event a family did not receive an application form one may be secured at the school of attendance.

In the event an application is denied, the parent may appeal by contacting the school of attendance, either orally or in writing. The person who will serve as the hearing officer will be other than the person who denied the application.

LG Planners Approve Community Goals

The fireworks are over for members of the Lemon Grove Planning Association after the group's executive committee passed final community goals at a meeting last Thursday evening.

The goals, which were amended slightly by the editing committee the week before, passed with only minor revisions, dealing with implementation.

In connection with approving the goals, the executive committee tentatively set November 9 as a date for a general membership meeting, which will probably be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Lemon Grove Junior High Auditorium.

The goals will then be presented to the general membership for acceptance.

The next meeting of the executive committee will be next Thursday at 3 p.m. in the auditorium at Golden Avenue School.

Six New Automotive Repair Classes Open

Six new automobile courses, all of which are free to any adult who wishes to enroll, are being opened this week by the Regional Occupational Program.

While some of them are already practically filled up, strangely enough those which offer the greatest opportunities for employment are still seriously lacking in students, according to Jack Cavanagh, director of vocational education for the Grossmont High School District.

"Most of the jobs are in the smaller businesses, which are spread throughout the community. Yet our two courses which offer skills almost every car dealership, garage, or service station can use have hardly any applicants," Cavanagh said.

The two classes he is speaking of are titled, "Auto Front-end Alignment, Brakes, Shock Absorber and Muffler Installation," and "Emergency Road Service Occupations." The first class offer skills which can be utilized by almost any business which deals with automobiles, Cavanagh said, and the second is an area very much in demand.

The emergency road service class teaches the basic skills of on-the-spot trouble shooting, and also procedures for towing and moving disabled vehicles under normal or emergency conditions.

A student will learn how to spot the problem with a disabled vehicle, including such electrical problems as broken or disconnected wires, generator or distributor trouble, and battery problems, and gas problems such as a broken fuel pump or fuel lines, and carburetion problems. These skills are very much in demand, Cavanagh said, by garages, dealerships, service stations, and automobile clubs.

All of the classes are designed to offer basic entry level skills to the person who lacks the training to get a good job without additional experience. "They can also benefit a college student looking for part-time work, or a high school student already enrolled in an auto course who wants additional experience in the actual industry," Cavanagh said.

For more information, call Jack Cavanagh at 465-3131.

In the program, outstanding young soldiers are teamed with experienced Army recruiters to tell their communities about Army career opportunities.

Another purpose of the program is to dispel old myths about Army life and to let people know what's happening in the Modern Volunteer Army.

To be selected he was required to have outstanding military bearing, possess the ability to get along with people and must have demonstrated potential leadership qualities. PFC Hernandez enlisted in the Army last April and has completed eight weeks of basic training and specialty advanced individual training.

While serving as an assistant recruiter he will talk to high school assemblies, civic clubs and other organizations, and will accompany local recruiters in their daily activities.

Tax Elimination Due Commercial Transport Firms

Owners of commercial vehicles engaged in transporting persons or cargo for hire will ge a tax break beginning July 1, 1973, when the Motor Vehicle Transportation License Tax Law is repealed.

Repeal of the tax, as a result of the Legislature's passing AB 705, will end what the State Board of Equalization for more than a decade has been calling a "highly discriminatory" tax now "unfairly imposed upon a relatively small segment of the trucking industry." In addition, it's the most expensive of all state taxes to administer.

Applauding elimination of the tax, State Board of Equalization Chairman John W. Lynch said that the State Board for many years "has vigorously advocated repeal" of the tax as "an anachronism which in other states has given way to more modern, equitable and efficient methods of taxing highway carriers."

The tax repealed by AB 705 is currently imposed at the rate of 1½ percent on the gross receipts of commercial vehicles engaged in transporting persons or cargo for hire. It does not apply to concerns transporting their own property, nor to for-hire transportation entirely within cities.

Such exclusions and exemptions contribute to the cost of administrating the tax — $4.33 for each $100 collected in 1970-71 compared with 87 cents per $100 for all other taxes administered by the Board of Equalization — but the principal cost is the heavy audit and compliance activity required for effective enforcement of the law. "Without such enforcement," however, Lynch said, "the tax would be even more inequitable in its application than it now is."

The yield from the transportation tax in fiscal year 1972-73 is estimated at $26 million.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Perhaps you have seen some of the signs "Hecho en Mexico" marked on products originated in Mexico. "Hecho," pronounced "EH-choh," because the first "h" is silent, means "made." Thus the complete phrase "Hecho en Mexico" is translated to "Made in Mexico."

"Hecho" is taken from the verb "haver" (to make). It may be used to express "Esta hecho de madera." (It is made of wood.) and "Esta bien hecho." (It is well made.).

"Hacer" has some interesting meanings other than "to make." For example, "hacer caso" may be used to mean "pay attention." This permits us to construct phrases like "Favor de hacer caso." (Please pay attention.), "No voy a hacer caso." (I am not going to pay attention.) and "Es facil hacer caso." (It is easy to pay attention.).

"Hacer furor" means "to make a hit." Expression that demonstrate the use of this are seen in the phrases "La cancion va a hacer furor." (The song is going to make a hit.) and "Ella puede hacer furor con su baile." (She is going to make a hit with her dance.).

"Hacer el tonto" may be translated "to play dumb." This has been used in expressions like "No va a hacer el tonto." (Don't go around playing dumb.) and "Es muy facil hacer el tonto." (It is very easy to play dumb.).

Some additional phrases that demonstrate "hecho" and "hacer" are listed below. You may wish to practice saying them with the aid of the phonetic guide following each one. Additional help in pronunciation is available when you dial 276-2762 to hear and practice with the recorded voice that guides you in saying each word and phrase.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Esta hecho aqui." (eh-STAH EH-choh ah-KEE) for "It is made here."

Say "Esta hecho en Mexico." (eh-STAH EH-choh ehn MEH-hee-koh) for "It is made in Mexico."

Say "Vamos a hacer caso." (V A H-mohs ah ah-SEHR KAH-soh) for "Let's pay attention."

Say "Me gusta hacer caso." (meh GOOS-tah ah-SEHR KAH-soh) for "I like to pay attention."

Say "El disco va a hacer furor." (ehl DEES-koh vah ah ah-SEHR foo-ROHR) for "The record is going to be a hit."

Say "Es facil hacer el tonto." (ehs FAH-seel ah-SEHR ehl TOHN-toh) for "It is easy to play dumb."

Church Shows Network Film

Refuse Survey Conducted By Litter Group

Following a recent litter survey endorsed by the San Diego City and County War Against Litter Committee, some interesting statistics were made available.

The survey was made to determine what constitutes litter, why people litter and how to reduce littering. To get answers, samplings of litter gathered from widely spread areas of the county including state highways, county roads, business streets, beaches, parks, residential areas and even underwater areas were checked. The opinion poll was made by questioning people involved in sanitation, health and maintenance work as well as the general citizenry.

Harry LaDou, Executive Director of the War Against Litter Committee, who conducted the survey, identified the areas from which litter was gathered and a tally made, as a composit of types of areas generally littered.

They included State Highway 5 from San Clemente south to Los Flores, county roads and other areas in Encinitas, Solana Beach, Encanto, Jamul, Valley Center, Descanso, segments of La Jolla, Pacific Beach, Mission Beach, University City, Balboa Park, Coronado, Memorial Park.

The count of litter items was made under the general heading of paper goods, accounting for 9,477 pieces or 56.8% of items collected; cans produced 4,170 pieces or 24.38%; bottles and jars 1,421 pieces or 8.38%; metal 296 pieces or 1.70%; plastics 1,146 pieces or 6.68%; wood 157 pieces or .90% and clothing at 181 pieces or 1.16%.

In the count of beer and soft drink cans collected, 35% were aluminum and 65% steel. Yet in checking with merchants and distributors in the county, an approximate determination showed 83% of those sold were aluminum and 17% steel.

In the count of beer and soft drink bottles collected, 18% were returnable with a deposit charge, against 82% no deposit, whereas those sold in the County approximated 33% deposit against 67% non-deposit.

Kempton School Teachers Earn National Honors

Margery Conard and Jack Zolezzi, Kempton Street Elementary School teachers, have been selected as Outstanding Elementary Teachers of America for 1972, according to J. S. Jacobs, principal of the school.

Nominated by Jacobs earlier this year, the teachers were selected for the national honor on the basis of their professional and civic achievements.

Outstanding Elementary Teachers of America is an annual program honoring the men and women who have distinguished themselves by their service and leadership in the field of elementary education. Each year, the biographies of those honored are featured in the awards volume, OUTSTANDIING ELEMENTARY TEACHERS OF AMERICA.

In announcing the award winners to the school principal, Dr. V. Gilbert Beers, director of the Outstanding Elementary Teachers of America program, cited them for their exceptional service.

"The men and women chosen for this high honor," Dr. Beers said, "have explored new paths, developed new insights, and effectively communicated their knowledge to their students and colleagues. They are the exceptional teachers."

Two Gridiron Contests, Local Parade Highlight Miguel Band Schedule

Three appearances in two days this weekend vault the Mt. Miguel High School marching band into the thick of a heavy 1972 schedule of activities.

The 120-member Matador group will perform before the home folks at tomorrow night's Mt. Miguel-Mission Bay football game, unveiling a new series of halftime formations developed by band director Dean Immel.

The musicians then take to the streets Saturday morning at the Lemon Grove Kids' Day Parade and are the solo band at the University of San Diego vs. Claremont College football contest Saturday night at USD.

Mt. Miguel participated in the Grossmont Carnival last week with seven other area high school bands and drew the evening's largest applause from a capacity crowd of 15,000 in Aztec Bowl. The band was accompanied by the 10-girl Banderette front group and the black and red clad cape corps.

The school's Music Parents Club is to hold a get-together pot luck dinner tonight at 6 p.m. in the cafeteria. Parents of all music students have been invited to attend.

The first general meeting of the club for the current school year will take place Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the band room. Approval of the budget should be the main topic of business.

Immel announced that orchestra rehearsals have started and that orchestra registration should reach 28, approximately 11 more than last season.

USIU Students Get Film Roles

More than 30 students of United States International University's School of Performing Arts, 350 Cedar st., are an important factor in the filming of United National Pictures feature motion picture, "Wicked, Wicked," now being shot on location at the Hotel del Coronado.

The school is providing the leading man, the coordinator of local talent, two understudies and over twenty "extras" for the film, which will go into release in theatres across the nation in a few months.

"Wicked, Wicked," whose executive producer is William T. Orr, is being produced and directed by Richard Bare. It is a mystery which tells of the mysterious disappearances, and ultimately, murders, of beautiful young women guests at the hotel.

Randy Roberts, a fourth-year student at USIU's School of Performing Arts, won the lead role of Jason Gant, the hotel handyman who becomes the psycho-pathic killer of the young ladies. Randy is an acting major in the drama division of the school.

Gerald Boughan, a graduate of USIU's School of Performing Arts, was selected by United National to be the coordinator of local talent. Adrienne Davidson and Bruce Swenson have been hired by the film company as stand-ins for the male and female stars and feature players of the cast. More than twenty students of the school have been signed by the motion picture company as extras.

Other San Diegans involved include approximately 15 adults as extras and bit players plus two local television newscasters, Harold Keen and Ed Deverill who will portray television newscasters.

A power drill was used to cut an escape hole through a three-foot stone wall at the Ohio Penitentiary. Officials said they did not hear the noise because of a noisy air conditioner.

Jobs For Vets Campaign Open

The National Alliance of Businessmen has launched a county-wide campaign to provide jobs for unemployed Vietnam veterans.

Secretary of Labor James D. Hodgson was the keynote speaker at the campaign kick-off luncheon at the Royal Inn at the Wharf Monday.

Walter A. Zitlau, president of San Diego Gas & Electric Company and chairman of the NAB job drive, said nearly 300 business and industry leaders from throughout San Diego County attended.

NAB launched a three-day telephone blitz Tuesday to ask 4,000 leaders of business and industry to provide jobs and training for veterans, Zitlau said.

Government officials, businessmen and labor leaders are conducting the blitz from headquarters at San Diego Gas & Electric Company offices in San Diego, Chula Vista, El Cajon, Escondido and Oceanside.

"There is a growing need to provide job opportunities for our Vietnam veterans," Zitlau said. "Last year, NAB helped place 135,000 veterans throughout the country. But increasing numbers are being released from the service, and President Nixon has challenged NAB to continue its efforts with expanded quotas."

There are an estimated 3,600 unemployed veterans in the San Diego area.

Sports Roundup

By Max Goodwin

Smell of the Crowd

Ans Dilley is the public relations director for the San Diego Conqs—that exciting but homeless hoop aggregation.

Temporarily, home is Peterson Gym at S.D. State University.

He's looking forward to a gymful of fans when the team opens here against the Denver Rockets Friday Oct. 13

The other day he recalled the time he was associated with the now defunct Pittsburgh Condors — a team notorious for its pitifully small fan support. Fred Crandwell was the public relations director there. He didn't worry too much about the lack of attendance. As a matter of fac his view was slightly tilted.

A woman caller on the day of a game asked "What time does tonight's game start?"

"We'll start when you get here," Crandwell told her.

Another time a man asked if the next game was going to be at home or away.

"Home," Crandwell told him, "just turn on your garage lights and we'll play it there."

Riches in Instant Ecology

That estimable gentleman of the turf, Eddie Reed, pub licity director for Del Mar Race Track, has a problem.

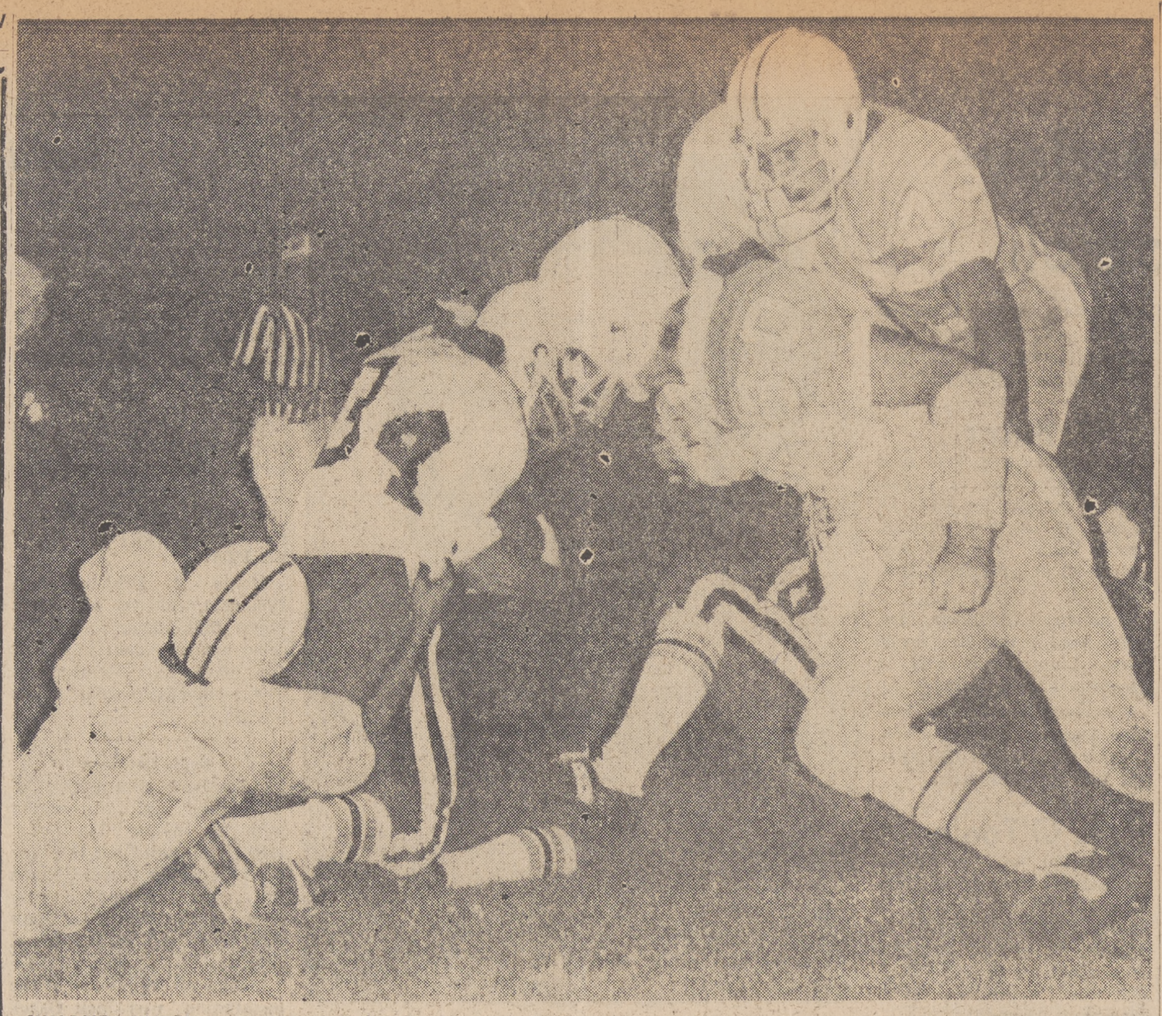
With all those horses you'd expect considerable manure —and he has it. And that's his problem.

As a matter of bookkeeping fact, it costs Del Mar more than $70,000 a year just to transport the ecological output from the horses' production line to the community dump 15 truckloads a day handle the output.

It's a pity, too, because the same stuff, put in bags, sells for $50-100 a ton.

At one time the bionomical material was in sharp demand and the user paid well for it. But try as he may he can find no takers today.

Reed agrees with this column that a sharp guy of scientific bent could make a fortune by developing a process by which the stuff could be inexpensively made into an "instant fertilizer" somewhat after the fashion of your favorite morning drink—freeze dried coffee.



SWARMED UNDER — Mt. Miguel High School running back Ed Morris (34), is swarmed under by Granite Hills defenders John Salas (40), Scott Moore (30) and Tom Ford (73) in last Friday's Grossmont League Football Carnival at Aztec Bowl. The Matadors gained a few yards on the play but were unable to penetrate the Eagle end zone as the two teams battled to a 0-0 tie in the carnival's second period. Both teams will see action tomorrow night in non league games on their home fields.

'Ridiculous Football Forgotten' Chargers Geared Up for Broncos

Little Big Man is coming to San Diego Stadium Sunday.

Floyd Little, best runner in the National Football League, leads the Denver Broncos (1-0) against the San Diego Chargers (0-1). Kickoff is 1:05 p.m.

A crowd of more than 45,000 will be present on United Crusade Kickoff Day in San Diego County. It will be the first NFL home game for the Chargers and their last at home for five weeks. They travel to Oakland, Baltimore, Miami and Detroit before returning against Kansas City on Oct. 29.

Little, 5-foot-9, 196-pound Denver Dynamo, led the American Football Conference in rushing in 1970 with 901 yards and the entire NFL in 1971 with 1,133 yards. Last Sunday, he began 1972 with 101 yards to help make Coach John Ralston's pro debut a smash success, 30-17, over the Houston Oilers.

San Diego, meanwhile, joined Kansas City and Oakland behind Denver in the lower three-quarters of the AFC West. The Chargers fell prey to the good hands of Gene Washington and the evil spirits of Candlestick Park. They lost to the San Francisco 49ers, 34-3.

"There's no sense crying about it," said Charger Coach Harland Svare. "It was ridiculous football and it snowballed. We are going to forget it quickly."

Svare was referring to five fumbles, 4 interceptions and 11 penalties which plagued his team as much as eight catches for 140 yards and three touchdowns by Washington. To make the day a total disaster were knee injuries to ace receiver Jerry LeVias and free safety Chris Fletcher. They had surgery Sunday night and are lost for the season.

Fletcher's loss in the second quarter caused a shuffle of San Diego's defense backfield. Joe Beauchamp moved from corner to replace Fletcher and newcomer Leonard Dunlap took over for Beauchamp. Ironically, the 49er most respected by San Diego, tight end Ted Kwalick, did not catch a pass.

Mike Garrett was the Chargers' lone offensive standout. He rushed for 80 yards and caught three passes for 21 yards. He surpassed the 4,000-yard career rushing milestone.

Against Denver Sunday, the Chargers should be strengthened by the return of injured fullback Cid Edwards and the addition to the roster of former all-pro tight end John Mackey. They will need plenty of muscle against a strong Denver defense, which limited Houston to 54 yards rushing and accounted for six quarterback sacks.

Mini Tickets on Sale

A new mini-season ticket is being made available to football fans by the San Diego State Aztecs. The mini-season covers five home games at San Diego Stadium for $25.

Field Goal Is Carny's Lone Tally

It was all defense last Friday night in Aztec Bowl when the North defeated the South, 3-0, in the annual Grossmont League Football Carnival.

The game's only score was set up by the defensive efforts of Santana High School. Santana, battling Monte Vista in the first period of the contest, forced the offensively potent Monarchs into a punting situation deep in Monte Vista territory.

The punt, thanks to a poor snap from center, went nearly straight up off the toe of Mike Davis, who was lucky to get the punt away at all under the heavy Sultan rush.

Santana, trying to move the ball against a surprisingly strong Monte Vista defensive crew, managed to get down inside the Monarch ten yard line before being stalled. Faced with a fourth down situation and forty seconds left on the clock, the Sults brought in Wes Hancock to try the three-pointer.

The kick, from the 14-yard line, split the uprights for the game's only score.

The remainder of the game consisted of each of the district's eight schools battling it out and the defensive units consistently stopping all scoring threats.

The purpose of the carnival is twofold: to raise money for the league's athletic programs, and to give each team a chance to see its progress after two weeks of drills.

The first was satisfied as usual, with a near capacity crowd on hand.

The second was a bonus for most coaches, as the carny proved that most teams have good defenses and nervous offenses.

For Santana and Monte Vista, the game was re-assuring. Monte Vista now has less worries about its defense. Early SIDELINE PLAY — Monte Vista flanker Mark Maley (18) churns his way up the sidelines after latching on to a screen pass from quarterback Art Spahr. Maley managed to break this tackle, but Santana's Steve Arlotto (43) bumped him out of bounds after a short gain. Santana's defense stopped the Monarchs deep in their own territory and a broken punt play set up a Santana field goal near the end of the first quarter in Friday's football carnival. The field goal was eventually the difference in the contest, as the North topped the South, 3-0.

Lake Murray Upset, Still Tops Loop

Lake Murray Little League survived an upset last week to continue along in first place in the La Mesa Recreation Department "A" League softball standings, while Aero remained undefeated in the "B" League and Foodmaker did the same in the "C" League.

The latest standings show Lake Murray leading Jim's U-Rent by a game and a half with a 6-1 record. Stadium Club is in third place another game down.

In last week's play, Lake Murray topped Stadium Club, 16-7, Jim's beat cellar dweller Tourquoise Lounge, 18-4, and fourth place Oasis shocked Lake Murray, 7-5.

In the "B" loop, Aero won a showdown match with Fletcher Hills Little League, 4-1, to send Fletcher into second place with a 4-1 mark. Ciccati's beat Post Office, 14-5 to move into a third place tie with Carpenter, who lost a 12-2 decision to La Mesa Kiwanis.

In the "C" League, Foodmaker won three games, including a 24-5 blasting of second place La Mesa Optimists. Foodmaker now holds a 2½-game bulge over Optimists.

When Marco Polo started his world travels from Venice in 1271 he did not return until 24 years later.

FAST TIME — George Behlman climbs out of No. 87 after turning in the fastest time on his second lap in qualifying runs Saturday night at South Bay Speedway. Congratulating Behlman are Jim Thomas, owner of Thomas and Son Disposal and owner of the car, and Jim Whitley, a member of the pit crew. Behlman's time was later bettered by several drivers, but the local leadfoot finished well in the main event to move into third place in the South Bay point standings.

Auto Racing is 'Love Affair' For Lemon Grove Machinist

by Max Goodwin

He's one of the top stock car racers at local tracks and he's on course for national racing recognition.

He is George Behlman, 28, a Lemon Grove machinist, who lives at 2040 Bonita st.

He's copped the fast time award five times at the South Bay Speedway. He's won four trophy dashes; three heat dashes; two main events, and a semi.

He does it in an Oldsmobile chassis carrying a fine-tuned Chevrolet motor. He stands third in points this year with his hyphenated car. He was 20th in points last year at the now defunct El Cajon track.

Behlman said he fell in love with racing when his father took him to the races 16 years ago — when he was 12. There, a driver allowed him to visit the pits. "That's when I became a race nut," Behlman said. "I thought I'd go crazy if I didn't get to race."

He didn't get to race until three years ago. His only notable accomplishment the first year was that he "spun out" or hit the wall every race. "It was disaster," he admitted.

Today, successful in racing, with great plan for the future, he is more enthusiastic than ever.

Why shouldn't he be? He's handsome, single, approaching stardom, and attracts the attention of feminine fans.

He also attracted the attention of a sponsor. Jim Thomas, a Lemon Grove man who operates the local disposal service, takes the responsibility for getting Behlman's racer on the track in top shape. The car has to be kept in tires; every week it has to be professionally tuned up, and the wheels must be re-aligned after every race. Thomas said it costs about $500 a month to keep the Behlman car in winning condition.

"We have the help of other race 'nuts'," he said. Dave's Texaco supplies oil and gas without charge; Lively's does the alignment, and Smokey's does the tune-up at the track. It's sort of a team effort."

Thomas once raced motorcycles at El Cajon. After he returned from the service, and got married, he was attracted to the track again, but not as a racer. He thought Behlman's style was good enough to win constantly — so he decided to get involved. "How'd you like a new set of tires for your car?" Thomas asked Behlman. That sealed it. Now Thomas is the owner of the car Behlman races every weekend.

The monetary rewards are not great. Last year Behlman won $276 for a main event. But he hopes to earn a living — or make his fortune from racing, eventually. He will some day leave the clay track where the top speed is more than 100 miles an hour and go to super speed contests. Way off in the future he sees a hand-built midget that he wants to race around half-mile tracks — "for the fun of it."

In addition to acknowledging appreciation for his sponsors, he said the pit crew is as important as any part of the operation. "These guys work 5-6 days a week without pay. Their only reward is having a winner. Any way you look at it everybdy is motivated. Motivation makes a strong team."

Behlman is employed weekdays at Broadway Machine Shop in Lemon Grove.

Field Goal Only Carnival Tally

season looks at the Monarchs have shown weakness there and one of the league's best offenses. Santana found itself able to stop Monte Vista's feared passing game.

Mt. Miguel and Granite Hills met in the second quarter and learned that their defensive backfields are stronger than expected. Both teams are capable of a good passing game, but neither moved the ball well Friday.

Helix and Grossmont met in the third quarter and found out that it's going to be a real battle for the league title this year. Helix is favored to win the crown, but Grossmont looked potent Friday.

Meeting in the last period were El Cajon and El Capitan, where the biggest surprise was found. El Cajon, supposedly a weak offensive unit but a defensive giant, proved to be the aggressor against El Cap, controlling the ball most of the time. Additionally, El Cajon stopped an El Cap threat, turning away possibly the league's toughest attack.

PacTel Seeks Rate Increase

Pacific Telephone last week filed an application for rate increases with the California Public Utilities Commission.

Increases under the plan would bring single party service charges to $5.75 per month on an interim basis, as compared with the current charge of $4.80. A second increase under the plan would take rates to $6.50, a total increase of over 35%.

Also under the plan, single line business service would jump from $6 to $7.65 then to $9.25, a jump of about 54%.

William E. Quirk, Vice President and General Manager for Pacific Telephone whose headquarters are in San Diego, termed the proposed increases "the only means by which we can continue satisfactory telephone service in California."

"Residence telephone rates in California are virtually the same today as they were 25 years ago. We simply cannot go on providing quality service in 1972 at 1950's prices," he added.

"As of the first of next year we face the prospect of raising more than $780 million in long term capital, $325 million of which will have to be raised in 1973," Quirk said. "We must obtain these funds if we are to install the equipment necessary for proper levels of service."

Griffs Host San Berdoo

The Grossmont College Griffins will make a second attempt to get into the win column Saturday night when they host San Bernardino in Aztec Bowl.

Last week, the Griffs were shut out, 22-0, by Long Beach City College.

San Berdoo is primarily a passing team with excellent speed. Additionally the team has a big defensive line, which means the Griffs may be forced to throw the ball more.

San Bernardino last week lost by just three points to Phoenix, the nation's third ranked junior college team last year.

O'Halloran Waits 'til 8th To Flatten Rahaman Ali

By Max Goodwin

If you had left your bifocals at home, you may have thought it was Muhammad Ali in the ring with Irish Jack O'Halloran last Wednesday at the Coliseum.

Put the glasses on and it became immediately apparent that the resemblance was in appearance only. It was Muhammad's brother, Rahaman.

And he didn't perform like Muhammad.

Defensively, he was good. Offensively, he landed a couple of overhands to O'Halloran's head and an occasional blow to the mid-section. And it all ended with a crack and a thud in 1:23 of the eighth round of the scheduled 10 rounder.

O'Halloran, 244 and 6'-6", against Rahaman's 201 and 6'-1", did little to show his right to the State Championship title he holds — until the eighth. He was way off on his timing as he missed with hooks and uppercuts. His left jab seemed to be working well.

After the fight he said he followed his game plan. "I knew he couldn't go ten rounds. He started tiring a little later than I thought he would. I knew he was tiring in the sixth round. Then it was only a matter of a little more time."

Mom Is Present

The mother of Rahaman and Muhammad was in the audience. She is an attractive matron whose name is Clay.

There were about 2,500 people in the Coliseum in which there is a sign which claims the place holds more than 3,000.

Most of the fans were noisy when they had cause. They had little cause until the eighth. An exception was the section that was strictly O'Halloran rooters. It was noisy all the time.

O'Halloran chopped his opponent down with a right, a left and another right. Ali was still prone at the 10 count.

O'Halloran did not make his normal pre-fight appearance. Often he greets fans prior to fight time. Once he distributed carnations to the press section. Another time a group of pretty girls greeted him and he sacrified himself to their hugs and kisses. Apparently, he is becoming serious about his title and is conducting himself in a more professional manner.

In a lightweight bout earlier on the card, Leslie Baker, of South Africa, won his sixth straight victory over David Herrera of Tijuana. Baker is becoming a Coliseum favorite.

Love Mis-Matched

In a middleweight mismatch, San Diegan David Love hit Polo Corona with everything but the ringposts. Corona, an old pro, couldn't be toppled although Love hit him so hard that he had to let up in the eighth round because his fists were so sore. Corona, a bull of a man, has a reputation for taking almost any kind of beating while waiting for an opening when his opponent tires. Corona was as fresh at the end of ten as he was when the fight started. Love repeatedly knocked Corona's mouthpiece out with jabs, crosses and uppercuts.

Rotary Meeting Set

Insurance Association Sponsors Safety Drive

The San Diego Association of Independent Insurance Agents is sponsoring 16 outdoor billboards urging motorists to drive safely and watch out for children on their way back to school this fall, it was announced by Robert A. Myers, public relations chairman for the association.

The billboards, which implore motorists to drive carefully with the message, "Don't Kill A Kid," are being posted at various locations, including Lemon Grove and El Cajon.

The materials, which were supplied at cost by the Oklahoma City Association of Indepent Insurance Agents, are being posted on outdoor advertising space provided through the courtesy of Foster and Kleiser Outdoor Advertising and Pacific Outdoor Advertising.

"We of the Independent Insurance Agents Association see this as just one part of our continuing involvement in the public affairs of the communities we serve," Myers said.

Serra System Provides Access To Whole World Of Writings

WHO'S THE AUTHOR? — Library Assistant Patricia Buck, left, of 9726 Sierra Madre rd., Spring Valley, searches through the card catalog while Library Aid Tressie Horton, 2601 Central ave., Spring Valley, looks in the book catalog at a San Diego County Library in Spring Valley. The library is a member of the Serra Regional Library System which allows any borrower to request his local library to borrow books he needs on interlibrary loan from another member library.

Belly-dancing? Wine-making? Genealogy? County history? Whatever your bag; the San Diego County Library with its 34 branches is the place to go for information.

County Librarian Arthur B. Murray said that although the County of San Diego owns 478,698 books, through the Serra Regional Library System, residents have access to the whole world in obtaining obscure writings.

"If a person is looking for a book his branch library doesn't have," Murry said, "that library contacts County headquarters which may then teletype the request to the San Diego Public Library on "E" street. This city-operated facility contains the Serra reference center, which checks to see if any other library in the County or neighboring Imperial County has the book. Failing to find it within its own region, the Serra System can then turn to the California State Library in Sacramento via teletype to try to track down the volume.

"With this type of literary sleuthing, there is very little information requested that we can't locate," he said. "The only trouble is that people often turn to the library only after they've exhausted all other sources. We'd rather they ask us first, because we are usually able to give them the answer."

The Serra System includes the San Diego County Library and its branches; the city libraries of Carlsbad, Chula Vista, Coronado, Escondido, National City, Oceanside, and San Diego; and four public libraries in Imperial County. Murray emphasized that although Serra System member libraries work together on system-wide projects, they each select their own books and hire their own staffs, thereby retaining autonomy.

"The system is not designed to combine all the libraries into one uniform package but rather to help each one serve its own patrons better," Murray said. "Together we can work on projects that a single library could not undertake by itself."

"Que Sera" is one such project:

"We're equipping a van with all kinds of media material such as slides, tapes, and films which we will take to the Indian reservations and other minority areas," he said.

"We're going to show our minority communities what's available and how to get it."

"Some people don't realize how easy it is to get a library card — all they have to do is ask for it," Murray said, "and a card from one library is good in any other library in the system."

Under the Serra System, books may be checked out in one library and returned to any other. A daily delivery service makes sure each library gets back its own books.

The Serra System also has 16mm films available to library patrons over 18 years of age. A film catalog may be consulted at any library, but the films are stored at the County Operations Center. A library card holder may request a film at any library and it will be delivered to that library for the patron to pick up.

"All the libraries in the County are benefitting from this cooperative program," Murray said. "Through the Serra System, the libraries have received funds to buy more books as well as sharing books with other libraries."

Established in 1967 under the California Public Library Services Act, the Serra System is financed completely by state and fedeal funds, so there's no cost to local taxpayers. San Diego County serves as the contracting agency for the system.

According to Murray, San Diego County libraries are becoming community centers. Each branch conducts its own programs, ranging from movies such as "Ghosts and Ghoulies" to lectures on organic gardening.

"Storytime still goes over big with the kids," Murray said. "But now we may offer a program on cooking or physical fitness for the parents during story hour in another part of the library."

"We want the library to appeal to everyone, not just children," he said.

LOCAL DANCER — Joyce Board, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Board, of 8850 Lance st., Spring Valley, will be among four Japanese dancers who will be performing at the Japanese Dance Festival in Montezuma Hall on the California State University San Diego campus, October 3. Miss Board, a freshman at Mt. Miguel High School, has been studying Japanese dance for two years. The program, co-sponsored by the CSUSD associated student organization and the campus Cultural Arts Board, is open to the public and will begin at 8 p.m.

New Phone Directories Delivered To East County

More than 200 tons of names were "dropped" last week when Pacific Telephone distributed its new directory to Lemon Grove and Spring Valley homes and businesses as well as other East County communities.

A 260-man crew began delivering phone books Tuesday and most local residents had their directories by Saturday, according to R. V. Schumacher, East County district commercial manager for PacTel.

Each of the more than 100,000 books that will be delivered weighs about 4¼ pounds, slightly more than the book currently in use.

Schumacher explained the weight difference by pointing out that the new extended area directory contains 35 more pages of alphabetical listings and 24 more pages of classified advertising.

There are about 14,875 more listings in the new books than the ones presently in use, he said.

He added that there is a change this year in directory delivery procedures. Residential customers receive only one book unless they ask for more. In the past the number subscribers received depended on the number of telephones in their home.

The change is being made, Schumacher said, because a company survey elsewhere in the state showed that 75 per cent of the persons sampled wanted only one book. However, new directories contain forms that enable customers to obtain additional books from PacTel at no charge.

Although there are no new features in the new edition, Schumacher urged customers to familiarize themselves with the directory and to note key number changes, such as new listings for the State of California and county offices in San Diego.

Schumacher emphasized that when a customer receives a book he should list frequently-called numbers in the space provided on the reverse side of the cover and should underline other important numbers elsewhere in the directory.

"Treat the book like it's your own, which it is. Mark it up, do anything to it to make it easier for you to use," he suggested.

The new directory cover features a full-color photograph of catamarans racing across Mission Bay while the cover story deals with San Diego water sports.

Cranston Bill Would Curb Postal Hikes

Survival of California's 718 magazines — particularly the small journals of opinion — and more than 5,000 jobs are being threatened by unparalled hikes in postal rates, according to Senator Alan Cranston (D., Calif.).

Cranston is co-sponsoring a bill to curb a 127 percent increase in second-class magazine and newspaper rates. A 33⅓ percent increase has already gone into effect with further increases scheduled between now and 1976.

Postal officials claim the increase is necessary if newspapers and magazines are going to pay the full cost of delivering each issue.

"However, the net effect will be to inhibit the public's access to new ideas and diverse points of view," Cranston maintained. "Since 1792 Congress has encouraged low postal rates for the distribution of publications through the mails. For 178 years, Congress recognized the need for this form of national subsidy as a vital component of public education and self-government."

Cranston pointed out that without the postal subsidy, "this vital channel of communication would be diminished, and practically every person who wishes to remain a magazine subscriber may find himself paying an additional $2 to $3 per year for each publication that manages to survive the postal rate hike".

Further, Cranston noted, the rate increase would hurt the weekly newspapers, many of which are delivered by mail. He said it will also hurt the important California magazine industry, which employs more than 5,000 people and nationally is second only to New York in the number of publications.

Lanterns Cause Fire

Two camping lanterns were responsible for a freak fire last week that caused $50 damage to a Spring Valley home, according to reports from the Spring Valley Fire Department.

The lanterns, one a gas-operated and the other a kerosene lamp, were on a table and the gas-operated one was being filled. The kerosene lamp was blown out and the fumes from the other lamp ignited.

The lantern then exploded, dropping flames on the carpet.

The fire was reported shortly after 7 p.m. Monday night at the home of Robert R. Chapple, 1143 Jamacha lane.

New Form For Welfare To Be Widely Used

The State Department of Welfare's new, comprehensive WR 2 application form for use in determining eligibility for Aid to Families with Dependent Children will be in use in all counties by October 1, Director Robert B. Carleson announced.

Use of the WR 2 in determining eligibility in the adult program — Aid to the Blind, Aid to the Disabled, and Old Age Security — will remain optional for the time being, Carleson said.

The 19-page form is designed to get down on one document all the information necessary to determine eligibility, and space is provided to translate the information into a form that can be used by computers.

It replaces nine state forms totaling 23 pages, and any number of county forms depending on which county is being applied to for welfare.

"Our recent earnings clearance system computer run indicates that counties are not getting all the information needed to determine whether an applicant is truly eligible," Carleson said.

"This jibes with error rate information we had gained previously through our periodic quality control audits."

Carleson said that the new form will make sure that eligibility workers have all the necessary questions, and applicants will be informed that they must answer fully and truthfully or face penalties.

The form was first tested in Napa county beginning last December and is in use in other counties now. All counties will be required to use it after October 1.

Carleson said that the counties have been consulted on its make-up and are aware of its contents. They have had since February to train eligibility workers to use it.

Property Tax Refund Due Senior Citizens

Californians who are over 62 and may qualify for a refund of a portion of the property taxes they paid last year, should file a claim with the Franchise Tax Board if they have not already done so, according to State Controller Houston I. Fluornoy, Chairman of the Franchise Tax Board.

In order to qualify under the Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance Program, an individual must be 62 years of age or older, own his own home, and have a total household income of $10,000 or less, said Flournoy.

"More than 122,000 individuals have filed claims amounting to $26 million. However, the filing deadline is October 15, and we want to make certain that no qualified individual fails to receive what is properly his," Fluornoy said.

Individuals may file claims with any office of the Franchise Tax Board, or by writing Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, P.O. Box 1588, Sacramento, CA 95807.

'Wolf Man' Due Tonight At Grossmont

Have you ever had the urge to pet a real live wolf? If you have, the opportunity will be available at 8 p.m., this evening in the Fine Arts Recital Hall at Grossmont College when John Harris, the "Wolf Man of Hayward" and wolves "Jethro" and "Clem", appear under the sponsorship of the Sierra Club and the North American Association for the Preservation of Predatory Animals.

Harris, who has devoted his life to enhancing the besmirched reputation of wolves, will answer questions on wolves and their habits. "Death of a Legend," a Canadian film devoted to conservation, will also be screened.

Off-Broadway Intriguing: 'Mr. Roberts' Outstanding

The Off-Broadway Theatre is an intriguing venture.

First, you wonder how they can stage productions like "Mr. Roberts" and others, on the limited space of the Off-Broadway theatre stage.

Then, you wonder why anyone would invest the kind of money that obviously goes to paying top performers for their artistry, in a limited capacity theatre.

Both questions were answered on the night "Mr. Roberts" opened at both the theatre and at an after-show reception for the performers and staff held at the U. S. Grant hotel.

Judicious designing of the sets by Glenn Holse — only three in toto — represented extremely well the inside and out of an armored cargo ship during World War II. A revolving stage is the key.

About the investment: Vincent Miranda, owner of a group of theatres (The Pussycat) said at the reception that he once aspired to be an actor — a tap dancer yet. Everywhere he turned he was thwarted by theatre executives. Maybe he had talent — maybe he didn't. But he couldn't get work as a performer.

He said he put the Off-Broadway into being because ". . . I'm a frustrated actor. And because I can afford it." We're glad he can! He used a bundle to renovate the theatre. It's a beauty.

About "Mr. Roberts": The star is James Drury who starred in "The Virginian" of teevee fame. He is cast as a strong, heroic executive officer who wants to get off the monotonous assignment aboard the cargo ship serving islands in the Pacific to get where the fighting is. But Mr. Roberts, a lieutenant (jg), is frustrated by the ship's captain (John Lawrence) who refuses to approve Mr. Roberts' request for transfer. Lawrence portrays a sadistic, ignorant, ambitious man who resents Mr. Roberts' ability and the respect his men have for Roberts. The ship's doctor (Gordon Jump) gives sympathetic support to Mr. Roberts' attempts to be transferred to a battleship while Mr. Pulver (Kevin O'Neal) affords a splendid comedy relief.

The show should be seen. Tragic at the end but funny throughout, the play boasts 17 outstanding performers. The theatre has a new managing director, Floyd Ackerman, who is planning a long string of outstanding plays.

And no reviewer should fail to take note of the direction given by Jim Burrows, son of Broadway star Abe Burrows.

And no theatre fan should miss the opportunity to attend Off-Broadway productions. They are top quality shows featuring top quality performers.

SD Chamber Opposes Watson Tax Initiative

At a recent meeting the Board of Directors of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce voted to oppose Proposition No. 14, the Watson Tax Limitation Initiative.

The Watson Initiative is one of 10 initiatives that will be on the Nov. ballot. In summary, Prop. 14 would limit property taxation to 1.75% of market value, plus the payment of debts, establishing a $7 per $100 assessed valuation constitutional ceiling on the property tax; shift all costs of social welfare services and a major part of costs of education from the property tax; and replace shifted property tax revenues by increasing by 2 cents the sales tax, increase bank, insurance and corporation taxes to 11%, and increase "sin" taxes such as cigarette and liquor taxes.

In chamber meetings held recently on the subject of Prop. 14, both sides of the Watson issue were surveyed. Los Angeles County Tax Assessor and author of the initiative, Phil Watson addressed a recent Chamber Listening Post, sharing the stage with local opponent, Gerry Lonergan, San Diego County Auditor.

In addition, at the board's most recent meeting, Mayor Pete Wilson spoke in opposition to the tax shift proposal.

Dolores Rogers To Leave Courts After 24 Years

A long-time Casa de Oro resident, now living in San Diego, is being feted Friday night at a retirement party at Le Baron hotel by more than 100 of her friends co-workers and relatives.

Dolores Rogers, who served in the Homeland Judicial Court under Judge Luther N. Hussey, was the object of the well-wishers. She had been employed by the County 24 years.

Acting hostesse will be Evelyn Leinen and Pat Soule with whom she had worked.

Mrs. Rogers lived on Calavo dr. in Spring Valley for 21 years. She was active in St. John of the Cross Catholic Church until Santa Sophia Parish was organized and she became a charter member. For six years she was principal of the parish school of religion for the church.

Mrs. Rogers' service with the County started in 1948 when she took a "temporary" job with the Registrar of Voter, Lex Lord. The same year she transferred to the Assessor's office working in the realty division under R. A. Laughlin. In 1953 she became clerk of the Justice Court in Lemon Grove where Luther Hussey was judge. When the court was consolidated with the San Diego Municipal Court system in 1957, Mrs. Rogers remained as Judge Hussey's clerk. Available records do not indicate a clerk as much longevity serving one judge — 17 years in all.

When Judge Hussey retired in 1970, Mrs. Rogers was assigned to Judge Ross Tharp's court. Recently, Tharp was elevated to Superior Court and Mrs. Rogers decided the time had come to retire.

"Mrs. Rogers is outstanding as a human and she served faultlessly as a court clerk," Judge Hussey said this week. "The court system is better for having her association."

Mrs. Rogers will go to St. Louis following her retirement, to visit her son Allan who is an agent with the FBI.

Boney and CHP On CoC Program

Supervisor Henry Boney will discuss Comprehensive Planning Organization next week on Thursday when he tells the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce "CPO can be a planning body or it can be a super government."

The meeting will be held at Pal's Cafe at noon and the public is invited.

At the meeting also will be members of the California Highway Patrol. They will discuss ART — (Accident Reduction Team) a project just getting underway in Lemon Grove.

Pal's is located at the corner of Imperial and Lester.

Uniform Fire Code Seen For County

San Diego (CNA) — A big step in the formation of a uniform fire code for San Diego County was taken recently when the San Diego County Board of Supervisors approved in principal a recommendation that a uniform code be adopted by all 32 fire agencies in the county.

The recommendation, made by the fire chiefs association, would not only set a uniform rate for the existing fire districts and cities, but would also provide an enforcable standard of fire prevention regulations in the unincorporated areas outside fire districts.

Reinecke To Visit Nixon Headquarters

Lieutenant Governor Ed Reinecke will visit the Nixon Campaign Headquarters, 330 "A" st., at noon today, William T. Stephens, Jr., and Dan McKinnon, co-chairmen of the San Diego County Committee for the Re-election of President Nixon, announced.

Reinecke will meet volunteer workers, share lunch with them at the headquarters and make calls to county residents urging their support of the President, Stephens said.

Alta Kaiser Put On Five Years' Probation

Alta Marie Kaiser, of Lemon Grove, last week was placed on five years of probation and ordered to continue a program of family counseling in connection with the death of a San Diego man a year ago.

Mrs. Kaiser, of 1917 Dartmoor dr., pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter charges last February. Charges were brought against her after the shooting death of Patrick A. Murphy.

Mrs. Kaiser was also given permission to move her family to the midwest.

More than 10.5 million passengers flew in and out of the Washington National Airport last year.

Reyes to be Featured In First Concert

One of the most gifted young musicians of this generation will open the Fall Concert Series at Grossmont College. Presented by the Office of Community Services, Uruguayan pianist Alberto Reyes, will be featured in a concert at 8 p.m., September 27, in the Fine Arts Recital Hall.

This young artist, whose exceptional musicianship and impeccable technique have won him the accolades of audiences and critics everywhere he has performed, began his musical studies at the age of six with Mme. Sarah Bourdillon de Santorsola in his home town of Montevideo.

Two years later, Reyes gave his first recital and his debut with the Uruguayan Symphony Orchestra was acclaimed by the press for the "surprising maturity of his musical ideas."

The auspicious beginning of his career was marked by his winning the most prestigious international competitions including Leventritt in New York, Tchaikovsky in Moscow, Rio de Janeiro in Brazil and City of Montevideo in Uruguay. In 1966 Reyes came to the United States to continue his studies with famed American pianist Sidney Foster.

For his appearance at Grossmont College, Reyes will play "Sonata in E Flat Major," by Haydn and "Sonata para Piano (1952)," by Alberto Ginastera. After a short intermission, Reyes will return to the keyboard to play "Sonata No. 3 in A Minor," by Prokofieff and "Three Transcendental Etudes," by Liszt. Reyes will also perform at 11 a.m. in the Fine Arts Recital Hall.

The public is invited to hear the young artist perform. There is no charge for admission.

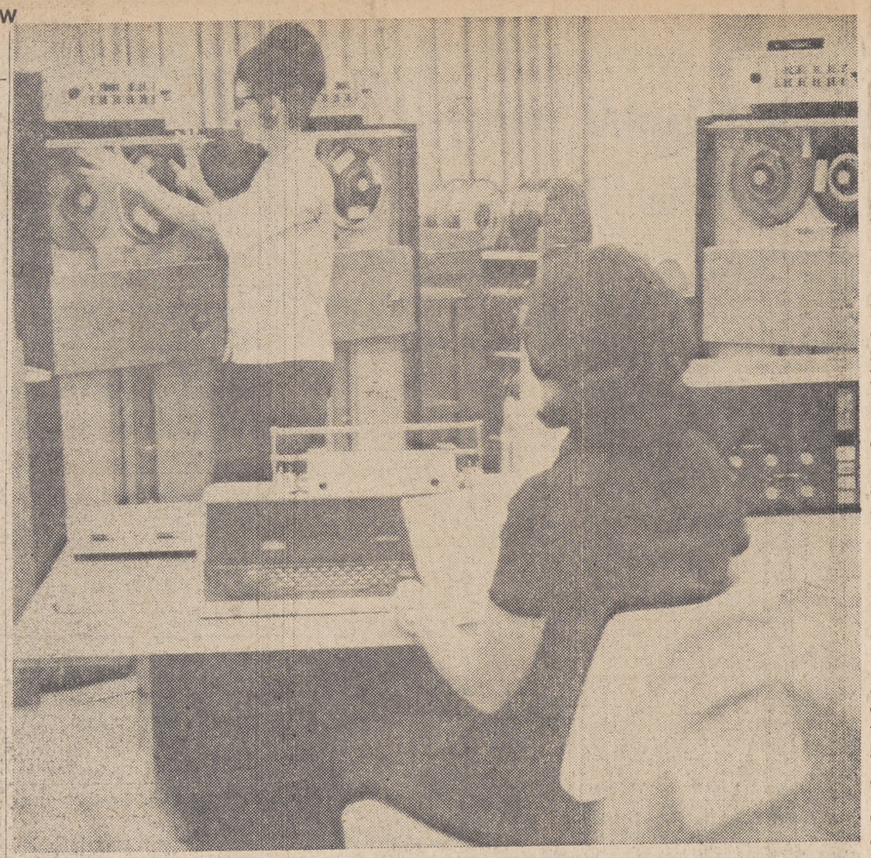
Fred Lewis To Teach Public Speaking Class

Fred Lewis, well known radio talk show host, also active in public relations, will repeat a successful University of California Extension public speaking course during the fall quarter beginning Monday evening.

Lewis is public affairs director, commentator and host of a telephone talk show on Radio KSDO in San Diego, as well as doing public relations works. He has taught University Extension classes for the past nine years.

The fall class, "Effective Public Speaking in Business and Industry" emphasizes relaxation, self-confidence, correct use of the voice, overcoming the fright factor and job interviews for men and women in the business world.

The speech class will be offered Monday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m., meeting in room 128 at Roosevelt Junior High School. For further enrollment information, the public is invited to call University Extension at 453-2000, ext. 2061.



CUSTOMER TAPE — A reel of computer tape containing customer refund records is inspected by Ida O'Neal, employed in Pacific Telephone's accounting center, as Barbara Gallardo, a controls clerk, watches. Records of customer transactions are recorded on tapes stored at the center and will be used in providing information for telephone company refunds in the form of bill credits to local subscribers.

Telephone Company To Refund $6 Million

Pacific Telephone will soon shift into a seven-day work week at its accounting center in order to complete as quickly as possible the job of refunding in excess of $6 million to its half-million San Diego County customers, about 50,000 of whom reside in the Lemon Grove-La Mesa-Spring Valley area.

The telephone company is currently in the process of refunding $163 million to subscribers throughout the state after the courts reversed the utility's method of computing property taxes.

Refunds will take the form of credits on customers' monthly bills, according to William E. Quirk, PacTel's vice president and general manager who is headquartered in San Diego. First credits will appear on Sept. 16 bills, according to Quirk, with the job being completed by Dec. 6.

The accounting center, Quirk explained, is a beehive of activity because it is here that records of customer bills are stored on computer tapes and it is where subscriber bills are printed.

Quirk said that because computer operations at the center already are on a six-day, around-the-clock work week to keep up with the heavy workload, "Sunday is the only day left to compute customer refunds."

He said that while no additional employes will be hired, hours of existing employes will be staggered to staff the required computer operations.

The company executive explained that for the past year customer information has been stored on special computer tapes in case the refunds were ordered.

And it is from this file of more than 100 tape reels, each one of which contains 2,200 feet of tape, that the accounting force will glean data for customer refunds.

Figures determining the size of an individual's refund will be transferred from the tape files to a computer that prints the bills, he added.

Quirk said that while a sum in the range of $12 to $15 has been used to describe an average refund, it probably will be much larger for many business customers.

"We haven't determined the exact over-all figure in the county, but we know that it will be in excess of $6 million," Quirk said.

He explained that unlike small businesses, the phone company does not mail all its bills out on any one day. Instead, there are 20 separate "billing cycles," which means that some customers will learn sooner than others the size of their refunds.

Sups Adopt S.V. Creek General Plan

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors Tuesday adopted the Spring Valley Creek plan for flood control as part of the general plan of flood control in Zone Three of the flood control district.

The plan is an elaborate and expensive one to control flood waters from main tributaries of the creek near Mt. Helix to a point below Jamacha rd.

The plan will be forwarded to the U. S. Corps of Engineers with the recommendation that it be considered in a forthcoming survey.

Public Works Administrator David K. Speer told the board that construction is urgently needed due to the flood control and economic development of the valley.

He said it is important that lands be set aside for the system before the extension of the rapidly growing residential area makes land acquisition too costly.

Hearings were held by the Zone Three commission in the area and this was probably the reason no testimony was offered at the board meeting. The item took less than a minute.

The supervisors heeded the request of the Brookside committee to ask the Corps to consider construction of a rectangular channel along Fairway drive that could later be covered over — the longtime aim of Brookside.

Basketball Program On Rotary Schedule

Steve Carlson, promotion manager for the San Diego Conquistadors, will provide a program on professional basketball for the Lemon Grove Rotary club Monday noon.

The Conqs will play this year at the 4,200-seat Peterson Gym.

Carlson is former aide to the past president of the American Basketball Association.

Rotary meets at the Lemon Grove Bowlero.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF FILING APPLICATION FOR INCREASES FOR INTRASTATE TELEPHONE RATES

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company on September 15, 1972, filed with the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California an application for authority to increase certain intrastate rates and charges applicable to telephone service furnished within the State of California. In general terms, the proposed increases are as follows:

Basic exchange rates would be increased for both residence and business telephone service. For residence the monthly increase would be from $1.05 to $1.70 per main telephone, except for one-party 30 message service, where an increase of $.75 is proposed with no change in the message allowance. An increase from $1.95 to $6.00 is proposed per main business telephone. Foreign exchange service rates and PBX trunk rates would be increased generally in the same proportion as main station rates.

The message unit charge for multi-message unit messages would be increased from $.045 to $.06 per unit. Foreign exchange service message unit charges would increase from $.05 to $.06.

It is proposed to introduce a new timing measurement plan for exchange messages placed from message rate telephones. The local message charge would be one exchange message unit, $.06, for each five minutes of usage.

For intrastate message toll telephone service, it is proposed to introduce a one minute initial period day schedule for customer dialed calls. Increases are proposed in operator handled station and person rates. A separate schedule will be established for coin calls.

Wide Area Telephone Service rates would be changed and separate schedules would be established for inward and outward service.

Service connection charges would increase for new and additional service, moves of customer's telephone sets, certain changes of customer's sets and key telephone system services, and in place connection charges. The charge for initial connection of a residence telephone would be increased from $15.00 to $25.00. The business charge would increase from $25.00 to $35.00.

Private Line rates and charges would be increased and the existing 5% surcharge discontinued.

Certain rates and charges would be increased for COM PAK, Multiple Line Key Cabinet and Key Cabinet Service, Private Branch Exchange and Emergency Reporting Telephone Service rates would be increased for attendant positions and also for order receiving equipment.

CENTREX and Airport Intercommunicating Service rates would be increased.

Telephone Answering Service cord operated position rates would be increased.

Increases are proposed for Optional Residence Telephone Service.

It is proposed to introduce a plan to selectively eliminate certain message unit and toll routes in order to create more uniform local calling areas.

Certain miscellaneous and supplemental equipment rates would be increased.

The rates proposed in the full application are estimated to produce additional annual gross revenue of $328,000,000 above present rate levels.

As part of its full application the Company seeks interim rates, which it requests be put in effect subject to refund, as soon as possible and before hearings are completed on the full application. In general terms, the proposed interim increases are as follows:

Residence basic rate increases would be $.95 to $1.05 per main telephone per month except for one-party 30 message service which would increase $.45 with no change in the message allowance.

Business basic rate increases would range from $1.10 to $1.65 per main telephone.

Message unit and exchange message charges for measured service would be increased from $.045 to $.049 (other than foreign exchange and coin).

Key equipment station rates and installation charges would be changed for COM PAK services.

The interim rates proposed are estimated to produce additional annual gross revenue of $103,300,000 above present rate levels.

Hearings on the full application and hearings on the interim increases will be set at a later date. Notice of such hearings will be published not less than five nor more than thirty days prior to the initial hearing.

The Company's proposed rates would become effective in various California counties and municipal corporations, including the County of San Diego upon grant of authority therefore by the California Public Utilities Commission.

A copy of the application may be inspected by any interested person in the office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company at 1188 6th Ave., San Diego, California and in the offices of the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California, Fifth Floor, State Building, Civic Center, San Francisco, California, and State Building, 107 South Broadway, Los Angeles, California.

Youth Center Representation Invited To DA's New Board

The Lemon Grove Youth Center is becoming famous — to a degree.

It was at a Fresno conference on youth that someone reported that a "splendid relationship existed between a youth center in Lemon Grove and the Lemon Grove newspare (the REVIEW)."

Good, it is, and weekly stories regarding the activities of the Center, and a reader campaign used to attract attention, is part of it.

For every subscriber our solictors get, we pay fifty cents of it to the Center for its operation.

This week, the Center's director, Dale Wood, reported that the youngsters will build a float to be in the Kiwanis Day Parade Saturday. It will have an Indian motif. The girls of the Center plan to hold a class in kite flying for youngsters in the neighborhood of ten-twelve years old. This will be on October 21, Wood said.

The San Diego County District Attorney's office has invited Director Wood to sit on the DA's Advisory Board just being formed. It is a project through which the DA can establish a closer line of communication between his office and the youth of the county.

Another lob-ball game is in the making.

Youth Center Satans didn't do too good against the Sheriff's Cossacks earlier this month but they are challenging members of the Lemon Grove Fire Department. The Department may be afraid of losing because they have not accepted the challenge yet.

Meanwhile, the reader campaign goes on. Here are the people who agreed to sign up last week:

Top Selling Girls To Spend Weekend At Camp Wolahi

Some 176 girls from fifth through twelfth grades will attend a Golden Pine Weekend Saturday and Sunday at the San Diego County Council of Camp Fire Girls Camp Wolahi in the Cuyamacas.

The girls represent 13 of some 23 groups which were repeat Golden Pine sellers during the Council's annual sale last January. Golden Pine is an award made to members of Camp Fire Girls groups, on all program levels, which sell either 1000 cans per group or an average of 100 cans per girl.

Mrs. Kenneth Fowler, of Lemon Grove, will lead a group at the camp.

Unisex Hairstyling Is Local Feature

A new concept in hair styling has been announced by Hair Stylists, 8249 Broadway, in Lemon Grove.

It is "Uni-Sex" fashions, which the operators say is a new process by which sculpture-cutting is provided for either men or women. It is done so that it complements the individual rather than just haircutting. Unisex styling is available exclusively for men Monday-Friday 4-8 p.m.

Four stylists in the shop — Marie Bridgeford, Pam Hubbard, Terri Mehia and Jan Floyd, have undegone intensive training to perfect the new concept. Included is a shampoo, conditioning, hairstyling and a "blowout". The latter is the use of a hair blower which "sets" the styled product.

$33,528 Top CPO Salary; Supervisors Stay Aloof

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The Comprehensive Planning Organization on Monday took the necessary steps to become CPO II.

The action came in a long series of resolutions transferring the CPO staff from county service to the new independent body.

Quickly, the chairman and vice chairman of CPO I, Councilman Richard Rypinski and Councilman James E. Hobel of Chula Vista, were reelected to the same positions on CPO II.

Supervisor William A. Craven left the meeting before the roll call of the new cast as the county has no standing in the new organization.

Richard Huff, executive director of CPO I and II, will get a salary raise from $26,268 a year to 27,576.

He said salary range will be reviewed in six months. It is now $33,528.

The CPO staff will move out of the Civic Center into the Security Plaza at 1200 3rd ave.

County supervisors seem as little inclined as ever to join CPO II through the signing of a new joint powers agreement.

One reason is that the county has a lesser share of the weighted voting formula than any other entity.

JPA gives the City of San Diego 40 votes, the county 30, with the remainder split among the other cities.
